YOUR MACRONUTRIENTS

Macronutrients include carbohydrates, fats, and proteins. A proper balance of these three macronutrients is key to providing your body with the energy it needs so you can enjoy an active, healthy lifestyle. In addition to eating one or two low-glycemic meals per day and fruits and vegetables, our MySmart shakes help you balance macronutrient intake with high-quality proteins and beneficial fats.*

USANA ASSOCIATE – As per current Preferred Card Industry (PCI) compliance regulations, it is illegal to copy, record, or maintain certain portions of a person's credit card information in paper or electronic format. Please note that writing or storing an individual's name, credit card number, and expiration date is permitted. However, also asking for and storing the accompanying CVV number is a violation of PCI compliance.

USANA's online ordering systems will request all credit card information to verify the card is valid for approval, but the CVV fields are a pass through to the banks only and not a stored record. Please use this form to gather the allowed information from your customer and ask for their CVV number at the time when you are placing the order. Do not write this information down. USANA is not liable for use of this form outside of the allowed regulatory data gathered as part of the order process.
